I.

AUTHORITY:

Deputy Secretary of Youth Services as contained in La. R.S. 36:405. Deviation from this policy must be approved by the Deputy Secretary.

II. PURPOSE:

To establish a plan of training and staff development for all Youth Services employees, contract personnel, volunteers and interns.

III. APPLICABILITY:

All Youth Services employees and contract providers. Each unit head shall insure that an employee staff development plan and curriculum is developed and implemented in accordance with the requirements outlined in this policy.

IV. DEFINITIONS:

Advisory Training Committee - A committee comprised of the unit's Staff Development Coordinator/Unit Training Officer, and other representatives as deemed necessary by the Unit Head, who shall meet quarterly, at a minimum, to review progress and resolve issues.

Advisory Training Council - A multi-disciplinary group of employees selected by the Agency's Staff Development Director, to serve in an oversight capacity regarding staff development and training activities.

In-service Training - An organized, planned, and evaluated training program, following the first year of employment, designed to achieve specific learning objectives.

Orientation Training - Any job specific training received by an employee, contract personnel, volunteers and interns, directly related to job duties, tasks and responsibilities before that employee functionally begins their assigned job position.

Pre-Service Training - Any training conducted as part of the initial training curriculum, which provides an overview of the Agency's vision, mission, goals, policies, procedures and operations, before that employee functionally begins the assigned job position.

On-The-Job Training - Any training an employee receives while performing the regular or functional duties and tasks of their job.

Special Skills Instructor - A person who has completed a specialized training curriculum and is qualified to instruct special skills training (i.e. firearms, SCM, CPR, PPCT, etc.).

Staff Development Coordinator - A full time secure care trainer position, at the unit level, that has completed a specialized 40-hour training-for-trainers curriculum through the Agency or other qualified source, [i.e., American Correctional Association, National Institute of Corrections, Federal Bureau of Investigation Instructor Development Course (FBI-IDC), etc.], responsible for the development, documentation, and delivery of the Agency's approved training.

Staff Development Director - A Central Office employee charged with overseeing the Agency's Staff Development and Training Program, and who serves as the clearinghouse for training opportunities for agency personnel.

Training Records Entry Completed (TREC)- The database used to track training hours of all YS employees.

Unit Head – Deputy Secretary, Undersecretary, Assistant Secretary, Deputy Assistant Secretaries, Deputy Undersecretary, Facility Directors and Regional Managers.

Unit Training Officer - A regional office employee, at the unit level, who by job description or assignment, oversees the development, documentation and delivery of the Agency's approved training.

V. POLICY:

It is the Deputy Secretary's policy that all YS employees shall have access to training and development opportunities, as limited by budgetary considerations and the need to maintain safety and security in agency work settings, as well as workplace coverage, in order to accomplish the agency's mission. Training shall focus on safety, security practices and therapeutic programming, with the level and amount based on the employee's job assignment and responsibilities. This also includes, but is not limited to: a pre-service program that adequately prepares a new employee for independent functioning; in-service training that allows all employee to gain knowledge and skills necessary to improve job performance and meet the requirements for any licensing or certifications that they must have as a requirement for their job; and other job related or career-enhancing training that may be available both on the job or through benefits programs associated with their employment.

VI. GENERAL PROCEDURES:

A. The agency's staff development program shall be planned, coordinated and implemented by qualified employees and consultants under the general direction and supervision of the Agency's qualified Staff Development Director. The Unit Staff Development Coordinator/Training Officer and/or Special Skills Instructor shall develop, coordinate and monitor the site's Annual Training Plan. Training plans shall provide for procedures for the on-going evaluation and review of all Pre-Service, In-Service and specialized training programs. An annual report shall be prepared and submitted by December 1st of each year to the Unit Head and the Agency's Staff Development Director and include, at a minimum, the following:

1. A written report of evaluations to include:
 - course evaluations
 - instructor evaluations
 - program critiques
 - training recommendations/requests/needs
2. An annual assessment that identifies current job-related training needs, to include assessments from various resources, such as:
 - observations and analysis of job components
 - staff surveys
 - review of operations
 - staff reports
 - staff evaluations

- B. The training programs shall provide employees with training needed to address the agency's mission, vision and guiding principles, as well as the specific needs of youth and staff. Training plans shall incorporate, but not be limited to, the specific requirements set forth by each unit's applicable accreditation standards, performance-based standards, YS Policy requirements, LSUHSC Health Care Policies for Youth, and the Office of Risk Management, and any other State Regulations/Guidelines, as well as required job-specific training needs.
- C. Satisfactory completion of all required training shall be made part of an employee's formalized performance expectations and shall be used as a part of the employee's annual performance appraisal process. Specific training requirements for a job position may be approved/substituted but must be authorized by the individual's supervisor.
- D. To the extent possible, each Unit will utilize information and assistance, including a resource library and reference services, to complement the training and staff development program. This includes resources from other public and private agencies for guidance in training development, programming and evaluation.
- E. All YS employees should be encouraged to continue their education through participation in formal educational programs such as professional meetings, YS affiliated workshops, the Comprehensive Public Employee Training Program (CPTP), seminars, conferences, and correspondence courses. Membership in juvenile/criminal justice professional associations should also be encouraged.
- F. Orientation, Pre-Service, and On-the-Job training shall be provided prior to independently commencing work assignments for all new permanent part-time, full-time and interim employees, or employees who have been on leave for more than one year and have subsequently returned to employment. Further, prior to rendering services to the agency, all temporary agency employees shall participate in a safety and security orientation appropriate to the provided services. Employees who miss any portion of Pre-Service training due to excused absences shall complete those sessions before the end of their probationary period and prior to independently commencing duty at the unit for which they have been employed.
- G. New and transferring employees will receive credit for applicable prior training (i.e. CPTP, ORM, etc.).
- H. In-Service training shall be provided annually to all Agency employees who have regular or daily contact with youth in YS programs for a minimum of forty (40) hours.

- I. All Agency employees with minimal contact with youth in YS programs shall receive a minimum of sixteen (16) hours of training during their first year of employment and each subsequent year thereafter.
- J. Adequate space and equipment shall be provided for training and staff development programs. Designated space should be free from distracting noise, observations from youth (if applicable), and large enough to accommodate 20 - 30 staff, as well as appropriate audio visual equipment. Designated areas shall be utilized for specialized training (i.e., use of interventions/safe crisis management, chemical agents, fire arms, etc.).
- K. The Staff Development Coordinator/Unit Training Officer shall visibly, as well as electronically, post announcements for all upcoming training sessions offered through the Agency. Announcements shall include the course title/topic, dates/times offered, description of the course, length of the course, trainee target group, course location, prerequisite training and enrollment information. Electronic posting shall be entered into the YS Training Calendar in Lotus Notes.
- L. Throughout the In-Service training year, the Staff Development Coordinator/Unit Training Officer shall prepare and submit a monthly report to the Unit Head detailing both those staff who have been trained and those who have not attended or successfully demonstrated proficiency in any aspect of the In-Service training. This report shall convey information regarding any failures or non-participation. The responsibility for addressing these matters shall rest with the Unit Head.
- M. The Agency Staff Development Director, the secure care Staff Development Coordinator, and the regional Unit Training Officer shall ensure that all employee training is entered into the Training Records Entry Completed (TREC) system within one (1) week of the training event. TREC records shall include name, identification/personnel number as listed ISIS and the YS Phone Book in Lotus Notes.
- N. All requests for access and passwords to training data shall be made through the Agency Staff Development Director. Additionally, the Agency Staff Development Director shall be notified of any changes to personnel who have access to the TREC (i.e. upon termination, transfer or other action) database.
- O. The Agency Staff Development Director, the secure care Staff Development Coordinator, and the regional Unit Training Officer shall document, compile and maintain reports of all training activities as well as individual training files for all unit employees, to include current proficiency lists for special skills areas requiring certification and re-certification. The TREC system shall be utilized for documentation and reports of training activities. Approved lesson plans for Pre-Service and In-Service training shall be maintained on file by the Staff Development Coordinator/Unit Training Officer.

- P. The Advisory Training Council, under the direction of the Agency's Staff Development Director, shall meet annually for the purpose of reviewing and ensuring that the development and implementation of training programs reflect the mission, vision and guiding principles of the Agency. This committee shall review and evaluate all Pre-Service and In-Service programs, as well as discuss and make recommendations for revisions in the direction of training for the Agency. The Advisory Council shall be composed of the following representatives or their designee:

- Staff Development Director
